

22.1 What Are Special Approvals?

The term Special Approvals refers to permits issued by CASA for particular activities such as glider towing, stock mustering, low-level acrobatics and taxi approvals, for other than licensed pilots. The term also refers to training and testing authorities for such operations.

These permits are issued by CASA.

For information on multi-engine and instrument training approvals, see Chapter 20 Flight Instructor Ratings.

Blank page