CASA EX127/19 — Australia Post (Dangerous Goods Statement) Exemption 2019

---

1 Name

This instrument is CASA EX127/19 — Australia Post (Dangerous Goods Statement) Exemption 2019.

2 Duration

This instrument:

- (a) commences on 1 December 2019; and
- (b) is repealed at the end of 30 November 2022.

3 Definitions

In this instrument:

postal article has the meaning given by section 3 of the Australian Postal Corporation Act 1989.

relevant flight means a flight for which the exemption in this instrument is relied on.

relevant postal article means a postal article that is consigned for carriage on board an aircraft, and:

- (a) weighs more than 500 grams; or
- (b) is more than 20 millimetres thick; or
- (c) is longer than 360 millimetres; or
- (d) is wider than 260 millimetres.

4 Application

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), this instrument applies to Australian Postal Corporation, ARN 223865 (Australia Post), in relation to a relevant postal article where other means of transporting the article are not available because of flood or flood-damaged roads.

- (2) However, this instrument does not apply in relation to a postal article that is marked “ROAD ONLY”.

5 Exemption

- (1) Australia Post is exempt from the requirements of regulation 92.070 of CASR that relate to the making, and signing, of a dangerous goods statement for a relevant postal article.
- (2) The exemption is subject to the condition in section 6.

6 Condition

Australia Post must give CASA written notice of the details of a relevant flight no more than 2 days after the completion of the flight.
