Purpose of this form

Use this form to apply for an Aeronautical Radio Operator Certificate (AROC).

Who is this form for?

This form is for individuals wishing to apply for an AROC and

- have completed an approved course of training; or
- are transitioning their old AROCOP; or
- the person holds a foreign qualification that is equivalent to:
 - a private pilot licence,
 - commercial pilot licence,
 - multi-crew pilot licence,
 - air transport pilot licence,
 - flight engineer licence,
 - a recreational pilot licence with a flight radio endorsement,
 - an aeronautical radio operator certificate; and
- qualification includes a statement to the effect that the person meets an ICAO English language proficiency standard equivalent to the ICAO level 4, 5 or 6 aviation English language proficiency standard specified in the Part 61 Manual of Standards; or
- the person has a current aviation English language proficiency assessment.

Information needed to complete this form

Applicants must have successfully completed an approved course of training and assessment for transmission of aeronautical radio operations with:

- a Registered Training Organisation whose scope of registration covers the training for operations of an aeronautical radio, or

- an approved person under CASR 64.012, or
- a pilot instructor who holds a training endorsement that authorises the instructor to conduct flight training for a pilot license or flight crew rating

Please note: In accordance with regulation 61.435 of the CASR, the holder of an RPL with a Flight Radio Endorsement, PPL, CPL, MPL or ATPL is authorised to transmit on aeronautical radios and does not need to apply for an AROC.
