Purpose of this form

This form is used by individuals to apply for a Skills assessment for the purpose of migrating to Australia.

Who is this form for?

This form is for individuals who hold a CASA Part 61 Commercial or Air Transport Pilot licence for the purpose of applying for a visa through the Department of Immigration and Border Protection.

Information needed to complete this form

CASA can only issue a skills assessment to aeroplane and helicopter pilots, who hold a relevant Australian flight crew licence and a Class 1 medical certificate which would enable them to obtain employment in the Australian aviation industry as a professional pilot. This requirement means applicants must hold either a Commercial Pilot Licence (CPL) or an Air Transport Pilot Licence (ATPL) that has been issued by CASA. You must have completed an Aviation security background check and passed and not been found adverse, to exercise the privileges of the flight crew licence.

Applicants who do not hold a relevant Australian flight crew licence authorisation will need to convert their relevant foreign flight crew licence qualifications to the Australian equivalent. Conversion to an Australian flight crew licence will normally require applicants to travel to Australia and undergo written examinations, aviation security background checks, a medical assessment and flight tests. Details of how to convert a foreign licence to an Australian licence can be found on CASA's website.

Upon receipt of your skills assessment application, CASA will assess and determine if your qualifications are suitable to engage in professional employment. CASA may contact referees and past/current employers you have disclosed to verify information supplied in this form in relation to professional piloting experience.

The Skilled migration scheme requires evidence that you have experience in the professional piloting role for which you may be seeking employment to be eligible under a Skilled migration scheme. The professional piloting experience must also immediately precede the date of submission of the skills assessment application.
