CASA EX02/19 — Dangerous Goods Training (Qld Health) Instrument 2019

1 Name
This instrument is CASA EX02/19 — Dangerous Goods Training (Qld Health) Instrument 2019.

2 Definitions
Note In this instrument, certain terms and expressions have the same meaning as they have in the Act and the Regulations. These include: dangerous goods and group F employee.
In this instrument:
training course means the training course on dangerous goods administered by Qld Health:
(a) that was undertaken between 1 July 2017 and 7 September 2017 inclusive by group F employees of Qld Health and other persons; and
(b) described in the CASA instrument Approval – Dangerous Goods Training Courses – Face-to-Face and Online (CASA Instrument Number 1-15NQZ2) that expired at the end of June 2017.

Qld Health means the State of Queensland represented by Pathology Queensland, an organisational unit of the Department of Health, ARN 778930.

3 Exemption
(1) Qld Health is exempt from compliance with regulation 92.120 of CASR to the extent that it requires Qld Health to ensure that each of its group F employees who undertook the training course between 1 July 2017 and 7 September 2017 inclusive must undertake training in accordance with subregulation 92.120 (4) every 2 years.

(2) The exemption in subsection (1) ceases to be in force at the end of 7 September 2019.
4 Directions

(1) The directions in subsections (2) to (4) are issued under regulation 11.245 of CASR.

Note For regulation 11.250 of CASR, the directions cease to be in force on the day this instrument is repealed.

(2) Qld Health must ensure that each of its group F employees that undertook the training course between 1 July 2017 and 7 September 2017 inclusive undertakes training in accordance with subregulation 92.120 (4) within 2 years after undertaking the training course.

(3) Qld Health must keep any training records of courses, students and instructors that it has retained in relation to the training course for at least 24 months from the day this instrument is made.

(4) Upon written request by CASA, Qld Health must make the training records it has kept available to CASA for inspection.

5 Repeal

This instrument is repealed at the end of 31 January 2022.
